MANDEEP SINGH is a colonel in the Indian Army with over 35 years in uniform. He commanded his regiment during operations against Pakistan and later along the Line of Actual Control. The author of seven books, he has been awarded the Chair of Excellence twice by the United Service Institution of India.

RAFFAELE RUGGERI was born in Bologna, where he still works and lives. He has long been interested in military history and has illustrated a number of books for Osprey.