

Lieutenant Colonel Anant Singh, CO 4 SIKH, with his company commanders standing in front of Barkee's police station on 11 September, the day after it was captured in a fierce battle. Part of 65 Infantry Brigade (7 Infantry Division), which had been tasked to advance on the Khalra–Lahore axis, 4 SIKH launched its assault on Barkee at 2000hrs on 10 September, supported by Central India Horse less one squadron, with 4 SIKH capturing the village on 11 September. (Indian Army/Wikimedia/GODL)