

Signed and customised birthday greeting by name from Prime Minister Modi to a NaMo app subscriber on 15 June 2020, sent to the author by the subscriber. The Gateway of India image reflected the subscriber's location in Mumbai. A similar image to another subscriber, for instance, came with an image of the capital city's Qutub Minar.[13] Picture used with permission of the recipient of this personal message.

Politics after Jio: Making the Digital Divide Irrelevant

In 2018, as part of a special training programme for political functionaries in the party's various organisational departments, the BJP published a 'quick guidebook for handling media and social media'. Roughly half of its eighty pages were devoted to strategies
