is made of black marble. Calligraphy is important to Muslims because words of the Koran are sacred.

The person who designed the quotes in the Taj Mahal received a special honor. His name, Amanat Khan Shirazi, is the only one to appear on the tomb. The name meant “Lord of Trust,” and was given to him by Shah Jahan.

Lamps and candlesticks were also created to light the inside of the tomb and other buildings. Originally, there were carpets and cushions on the floors. These no longer exist.

When all the decorative work was finished, it was time to work on the waterways and gardens outside. These would complete the Muslim idea of Paradise.
