

Shah Jahan died reciting verses from the Koran. During his last days, servants placed a mirror so he could see the Taj Mahal from his bed. Aurangzeb had him buried in the Taj Mahal, next to his beloved Mumtaz. Shah Jahan's coffin and sarcophagus are the only parts of the structure that are not symmetrical with the rest.

Tourists Today

Today at the Taj Mahal, visitors climb steps to the plinth and then enter the main doorway. Inside, natural light pours in through windows high above. A large lamp also hangs from the dome. (It was added later.) The inside of the dome is smaller than the dome outside. It
