NOT LIVE IN THE SAME NEIGHBORHOODS, GO TO THE SAME SCHOOLS OR HOSPITALS, RIDE THE SAME TRANSPORTATION, OR EVEN VISIT THE SAME BEACHES. WHITE PEOPLE HAD THE BEST SERVICES, WHILE PEOPLE OF COLOR OFTEN LIVED IN POVERTY AND WERE STRIPPED OF MANY RIGHTS.

APARTHEID DID NOT END UNTIL 1991.

IN 1994, WHEN PEOPLE OF ALL RACES COULD FINALLY VOTE IN SOUTH AFRICA, THE COUNTRY ELECTED ITS FIRST BLACK PRESIDENT, NELSON MANDELA.

NELSON MANDELA

After twenty years of hard work in South Africa, Gandhi had finally made a difference. The government passed the Indian Relief Act in July 1914, putting an end to unfair taxes and changing the marriage law to include all faiths.
