

TODAY, JALLIANWALA BAGH IS A PUBLIC GARDEN. IN 1951, A MEMORIAL WAS BUILT IN THE GARDEN TO HONOR THE MANY INDIANS WHO LOST THEIR LIVES IN THE MASSACRE. VISITORS CAN SEE THE TALL WALLS ON EACH SIDE, SOME STILL DOTTED WITH BULLET HOLES. A FLAME BURNS TO REMEMBER ALL THOSE WHO LOST THEIR LIVES ON APRIL 13, 1919.