had hardly had any sleep in the past week. Completely drained—mental y as wel as physical y—I went straight to my room and slumped onto the bed.

A gentle touch on my shoulder woke me up. It was late in the afternoon, almost approaching evening. I saw Dr Brahm Prakash sitting by my bedside. “What about going for lunch?” he asked. I was deeply touched by his affection and concern. I found out later that Dr Brahm Prakash had come to my room twice before that but had gone away on finding me asleep. He had waited al that time for me to get up and have lunch with him. I was sad, but not alone. The company of Dr Brahm Prakash fil ed me with a new confidence. He made light conversation during the meal, careful y avoiding the SLV-3, but gently providing me solace.
