teacher-scientist could outwit any other expert in the country in this field. I wil always remember his candid exposition of various aspects of the Command Line of Sight (CLOS) guidance system during the Trishul meetings. Once, he showed me a verse that he had composed to highlight the woes of an IGMDP Project Director. It was a good way of letting off steam:

I mpossible timeframes,

PERT charts to boot

Are driving me almost crazy as a coot;

Presentations to MC add to one's woes,

If they solve anything, Heaven only knows.

Meetings on holidays, even at night,

The family is fed up,

And all ready to fight.

My hands are itching

to tear my hair —

But alas! I haven't any more to tear ...

I told him, "I have handed over al my problems to my best teams in DRDL, RCI, and other participating labs. That has given me a ful head of hair."

The year 1991 began on a very ominous note. On the
