My Mother

Sea waves, golden sand, pilgrims' faith,

Rameswaram Mosque Street, al merge into one,

My Mother!

You come to me like heaven's caring arms.

I remember the war days when life was chal enge and toil—

Miles to walk, hours before sunrise,

Walking to take lessons from the saintly teacher near the temple. Again miles to the Arab teaching school,

Climb sandy hil s to Railway Station Road,

Col ect, distribute newspapers to temple city citizens,

Few hours after sunrise, going to school.

Evening, business time before study at night.

Al this pain of a young boy,

My Mother you transformed into pious strength

With kneeling and bowing five times

For the Grace of the Almighty only, My Mother.

Your strong piety is your children's strength,

You always shared your best with whoever needed the most, You always gave, and gave with faith in Him.

I stil remember the day when I was ten,

Sleeping on your lap to the envy of my elder brothers and
