

© Gallo Images

© Gallo Images

I've always come to the party at World Cups. Never more so than against the Netherlands during the 2007 World Cup, where I got a 72 that included – for the first time ever in international cricket – hitting six sixes in one over. The pic on the right is me klapping the final six

© The Bigger Picture/Reuters

At first the guys and I thought the $1 million on offer for breaking that record would be shared by me and the team. Turned out it wasn't. At least it went to a worthy cause. Presenting the cheque to me is the first man to hit six sixes in first-class cricket, the legendary Sir Garfield Sobers