

Figure 4.4 Shah-i Mashhad madrasa*, south façade. © Photograph Bernt Glatzer* c. 1990?

Figure 4.5 Shah-i Mashhad madrasa*, possible tomb of southeast corner. © Photograph Bernt Glatzer* c. 1970.

Ever since the rediscovery of Shah-i Mashhad in 1970, its epigraphy and extensive ornament have commanded as much attention as its structural features. The inscriptions' calligraphic styles range from knotted and interlocking Kufic, to elongated naskh and thuluth against lush floral backgrounds