i. عمل عثمان ابن...ابن
ii. ...و فرغ من اشدته...
iii. في اول شهر الله
iv. المبارک رمضان [عظم] الله [قدرته؟] سنه
v. خمس و خمس مايه [AH 505/1112–1113 CE].[22]

3. Top frieze of marble dado slabs on walls of central court (partly in situ), floriated Kufic, Persian: mathnavī (mutaqārib meter), approximately 85–95 distiches, progressing counterclockwise from northwest through south and east sides; n.d., possibly early twelfth century (r. Mas'ūd III, 1099–1115 CE):[23]
   a. west side:
      i. ...شاه محمود...(i.e., Maḥmūd ibn Sabuktīgīn, r. AH 389–421/999–1030 CE);[24]
      ii. ...أبو سعيد (i.e., Mas'ūd I, r. AH 421–432/1030–41 CE).[25]
4. Top frieze of marble dado slabs on walls of central court (partly in situ), floriated Kufic, Persian: qaṣīda [?] (mujtathth meter, rhyme -an), progressing from northeast corner to northwest corner (possibly extending further on both ends), likely two or more compositions.[26]
5. Baked brick and stucco fragments of monumental epigraphic bands, recovered in west and northeast of courtyard (above marble dado slabs V:1, 3):[27]
   a. Kufic, Arabic: benedictory texts, e.g. الملک لله، الملک (alone and/or repeated);
   b. Kufic: Bismillah; Qur'ān III:18–19 (Āl 'Imrān) (stucco);[28]
   c. three different fragments, naskh, Arabic: royal titles, including: ...السلطان المعظم الم (baked brick).[29]

VI. Minār of Mas'ūd III[30]

1. Kufic: Bismillah; titles, laqab (السلطان العظم) kunya (ابو سعد), and ism (مسعود) of Sultan Mas'ūd III.
2. Interlocking Kufic (in square panels): titles, kunya and ism of Mas'ūd III.
3. Naskh: Qur'ān XLVIII:1–29? (al-Fatḥ).

Ghūr

VII. Jam-Fīrūzkūh minār[31]

First (topmost) band:
1. Kufic: Shahāda.

Second band:
2. Kufic: Qur'ān LXI:13 and first three words of 14 (al-Ṣaf).