

Cavalryman. General Issa Pliev, a hero of World War II, brutally suppressed a popular uprising in the southern Russian town of Novocherkassk in June 1962. He was handpicked by Khrushchev and Malinovsky to lead the Soviet task force in Cuba. (MIL.RU)