and Eisenhower's criticism in New York Times, 133, 134
election of 1960, 20–21
ExCom debate recordings, xv ExCom meetings on blockade, 175–78, 182–85 and ExCom structure/membership, 280–81 first meeting with Khrushchev, 22–28 framing of US–USSR Cuba deal, 300 inauguration, 5–7
Joint Chiefs of Staff meeting, 152–54 and Khrushchev's acceptance of US proposal, 289–93 and Khrushchev's attempt to delay removal of IL-28s from, 342–43 Khrushchev's background compared to, 19–20 and Khrushchev's interests, 66 and Khrushchev's letter on resolution of Cuban crisis, 283–85, 287–88 and Khrushchev's reaction to blockade announcement, 170–71 and legacy of Cuban missile crisis, 359–60 letter to Khrushchev on missiles in Cuba, 167 letter to Khrushchev on removal of missiles, 336–37 letter to Khrushchev proposing settlement of crisis, 278–79
John McCone and, 130
and McNamara's proposal to mobilize reserves, 108–9 meetings following discovery of missiles, 145–47 meeting with Gromyko, 149–51
and military options, 139–41
and Minuteman missile, 50–51 news conference on Khrushchev's agreement to remove IL-28 bombers from Cuba, 355 news coverage of administration's initial Cuba talks, 161–62 and nuclear strike option, 54–55 and Operation Anadyr, 104–5 and Presidium meeting on resolution of Cuban crisis, 283 quarantine line for blockade, 181 resumption of U-2 flyovers, 130–31
on retaliatory response to missiles launched from Cuba, 272 September 4 meeting with foreign policy team, 107–9 and Soviet intransigence over removal of IL-28s, 349, 351–52 and Soviet submarines, 265–66
and Soviet troop buildup in Cuba, 103–4, 106–7 on Stevenson at UN Security Council meeting, 198 and surgical strike option, 148 and Tuchman's March of Folly, xvi and Turkey–Cuba missile swap, 209, 213–22, 229–31, 248–49, 251, 254–55, 276 and U-2 missions over Cuba, 350–51
Kennedy, John F., Jr., 101, 132, 254
Kennedy, Joseph, 101, 153
Kennedy, Robert F.
Barsukov's meeting with, 21
on Berlin as factor in Cuban deliberations, 148 and Berlin crisis, 103