Dobrynin and, 252–53, 282, 285
and downing of Anderson's U-2 flight, 247
as element in McNamara's blockade plan, 155
ExCom's opposition to, 230
first mentioned as potential solution, 107
Kennedy's advocacy of, 248–50, 279
Kennedy's calls to previous presidents about, 294–95
and Kennedy's letter to Khrushchev on settlement of Cuba crisis, 279
Khrushchev's acceptance of US proposal, 293–94
Khrushchev's first mention of possibility, 206–9
Khrushchev's framing of deal, 281, 300, 358
Pravda coverage, 276
and Presidium meeting on resolution of Cuban crisis, 281, 282
as response to loss of control in Cuba, xvii Rusk and, 250–51
secrecy surrounding, 252–54, 294, 296–97
25th Fighter Division, 227–28
Twenty-Second Congress of the CPSU, See Communist Party Congress (1961)
27th Antiaircraft Missile Division, 87–88

U-2 spy planes
accidental incursion into Soviet airspace, 121–22, 224–29
discovery of missiles in Cuba, 99–100, 134, 265
downing of Anderson's plane over Cuba, 231–32, 241–46, 276–77, 284, 306–7 limitations of high-level U-2 missions over Cuba, 350–51
and John McCone–John Kennedy meeting, 130
overflights of USSR, 20
photos from Cuban overflights, 198
resumption of Cuban flyovers, 130–31
Soviet downing of, xvii
and Soviet missile deployment on Cuba, 84
Udall, Stewart L., 112–13, 121
Ulbricht, Walter, 25, 31, 33, 103–4
United Fruit Company, 12
United Nations (UN)
and Bay of Pigs, 15
inspections of Cuban missile sites, 292, 309–14
and Kennedy–Khrushchev deal, 309–14
proposed supervision of withdrawal of missiles from Cuba, 279, 284
United Nations (UN) General Assembly, 21
United Nations (UN) Security Council, 197–98, 208
United Press International, 162
Universal Rocket 200, 53
Universal Rocket 500, 53
U Thant
and Castro's conditions for resolution of Cuban crisis, 347
and Castro's reaction Kennedy–Khrushchev deal, 309–14
and Castro's threat to resume shooting at American planes, 346