remain completely focused on India, the jihad against America and its allies was impossible to ignore. A series of events from mid-decade onwards led to increased integration with the global jihadi nexus developing in Pakistan, even as leaders like Hafiz Saeed and Zaki-ur Rehman Lakhvi continued to prioritize the fight against India.