15. There is general agreement that this was a Lashkar-led attack, but two groups initially took credit. One was Jamiat-ul-Mujahedin, believed to be a splinter of the Hizb-ul-Mujahideen. The other was Al-Masooran, an alias Lashkar often used for attacks in which civilians were killed. Regarding details of the attack, see: 'Family Members Killed in Kashmir Militant attack on Bus, Army Camp,' Press Trust of India, 14 May 2002.
