Table A.1 TTP Leaders/Prominent Members

S. no.	Name of the leader	Status	Affiliation	Whereabouts	Further details
1.	Baitullah Mehsud	Founder and Chief of TTP. Killed in drone attack in August 2009.	Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP).	Khyber, Kurram and Orakzai Agency.
2.	Hakimullah Mehsud	Hakimullah Mehsud (34 at the time of his death) was the Amir, or leader, of TTP from August 2009 to November 2013. He was appointed Amir after his predecessor, Baitullah Mehsud, was killed in a US airstrike in August 2009. He hailed from Dehra village of Kotkal, South Waziristan. He belonged to the Ishangi, a sub-tribe of Mehsuds. Prior to leading the TTP, Hakimullah was TTP regional commander, controlling the Orakzai Agency in 2007 and later operating in Lower Kurram Valley. Hakimullah Mehsud was also the cousin of Qari Hussein, the top suicide-bomb facilitator for the TTP. He was killed in a US drone attack at Danda Darpa Khel near Miramshah on 1 November 2013. He was the most wanted militant in Pakistan with a $5 million US bounty on his head.	Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) Hakimullah is close to Al Qaeda and the Afghan Taliban, as well as to the constellation of Pakistani jihadist groups such as the Lashkar-e-Taiba, Lashkar-e-Jhangvi and Jaish-e-Muhammed. He [had] close links with the banned anti-Shia sectarian group Sipah-e-Sahaba Pakistan (SSP) and its militant wing Lashkar-e-Jhangvi (LeJ).	Khyber, Kurram and Orakzai Agencies.	He was considered an able, tough and ruthless militant commander. He was responsible for the series of raids against US military supply convoys moving through Peshawar in 2007 and 2008. It was in Khyber, Kurram and Orakzai that he played an independent role and used the power of the media to get himself recognised as the new top leader of the Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP). It was Hakimullah who disrupted the NATO fuel supply lines in Khyber and Peshawar and took responsibility for destroying more than 600 NATO vehicles and containers (The News [Islamabad], September 1 [2009]). Hakimullah Mehsud [was] believed to be behind all the major suicide attacks in Pakistan and also blamed for killing Shia Muslims in Orakzai and Kurram Agencies. He was targeted by drone missiles in 2011 and January 2012
