					but escaped. However, he was seriously injured.
3.	Qari Hussain Mehsud	Qari Hussain Mehsud was Hakimullah Mehsud's deputy. He was considered the master trainer of suicide bombers and an expert bomb maker. He was killed in a drone attack. He ran suicide training camps for children in Spinkai, South Waziristan.	Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP).	Spinkai, South Waziristan.	He was considered a candidate to take over the Pakistani Taliban in the event of Hakimullah's death.
4.	Azam Tariq	Azam Tariq was the top spokesperson for the Movement of the Taliban in Pakistan. He was appointed as Hakimullah's spokesperson in August 2009 after Baitullah Mehsud was killed in a US airstrike in South Waziristan.	Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP).	South Waziristan.	Tariq appeared on a Taliban tape in May 2010 threatening further attacks on the US.
5.	Hafiz Gul Bahadur	Hafiz Gul Bahadur is the senior Taliban leader in North Waziristan and one of the most prominent commanders in Pakistan.	Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP). Bahadar chairs the North Waziristan Shura, or executive council.	North Waziristan.	He is not aligned with TTP, but does maintain close ties to the group. He is a direct descendant of Mirza Ali Khan. Bahadar is considered by the Pakistani establishment a 'pro-government Taliban' leader. Al Qaeda and allied Pakistani and Central Asian jihadi groups shelter in Bahadar's tribal areas and run training camps and safe houses in the region.