Chapter 2 Four Phases of Extremism and Terrorism

1. 'Jaish-e-Muhammad's charity wing revitalizes banned group in Pakistan', Terrorism Monitor 9/41 (Jamestown Foundation, 11 November 2011).
2. Maulana Masood Azhar wrote in alqalam with the pen name Saadi. Available at http://www.alqalamonline.com (accessed 20 July 2011).
3. Intelligence Sources.
4. The Ahl-e-Hadith are Salafist in orientation, meaning they believe Muslims must return to a pure form of Islam and advocate emulating the Prophet Muhammad and his companions in all areas of life.
5. Interview with Khalid Waleed, Political coordinator of Jamaat-ud-Dawa on 6 June 2012. He is son-in-law of Hafiz Muhammad Saeed, Amir JuD.
6. Jamat-ud-Dawah, Hafiz Saeed, Zaki-ur-Rehman and Haji Ashraf were added to UN terror list.
7. I interviewed Khalid Bashir, Coordinator Public Relations JuD, many times in Lahore in 2012 and 2013. He was killed on 17 May 2013 in mysterious circumstances. I was shocked to learn about his murder when I read about it in the newspaper. I was doubtful whether he was the same Khalid Bashir or not. I tried to call on his mobile number but it was switched off. The JuD office confirmed his death. I had met him just a week before his death.
8. I met Hafiz Saeed at the Madrassa across from his residence in Johar Town, Lahore, on 22 January 2013. We offered Maghrab (sunset time) prayer in the adjacent mosque under the security of agile gun-totting guards. Late Khalid Bashir, Coordinator PR JuD, remained present in the meeting. The meeting continued for half an hour due to the bad health of Hafiz Saeed. However, he was candid and relaxed.
9. Indian Home Minister Shinde openly conceded (20 January 2013) that Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and Rashtriya Sevak Sangh (RSS) run terrorist training camps and its targets are the Muslims in India. Addressing the
