Chapter 6 Lal Masjid Operation, Escalation in Terrorist Activities and Expansion Across the Country

1. The Lal Masjid (Red Mosque) is situated in the centre of Islamabad. It was run by two brothers, Maulana Abdul Aziz and Abdul Rashid Ghazi who were sons of the late Maulana Abdullah who had been Imam of this mosque for many years. From the beginning of 2006, Lal Masjid and the adjacent Jamia Hafsa madrasah had been operated by Islamic militants led by TTP. This organisation supported the imposition of Sharia (Islamic religious law) in Pakistan and openly called for the overthrow of the Pakistani government, led by its President Pervez Musharraf. Lal Masjid was in constant conflict with authorities in Islamabad for 18 months prior to the military operation. They engaged in violent demonstrations, destruction of property, kidnapping, arson and armed clashes with authorities. After Lal Masjid militants set fire to the Ministry of Environment building and attacked the Army Rangers who guarded it, the military responded, and the siege of the Lal Masjid complex began.
2. A copy of the letter was released by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence on 11 October 2005. Available at http://www.globalsecurity.org/security/library/report/2005/zawahiri-zarqawi-letter_9jul2005.htm.
3. This document does not merely call for radical reform of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan along the principles traditionally espoused by Al Qaeda and its local allies; it calls for the destruction of the state itself. In making this call, Zawahiri is going beyond the name-calling and the declaration that Pakistan is an apostate government, to providing reasoned legal arguments to support his assertion that apostasy is rooted in the state's foundational document.

5. 'Maghrib Ka Tareek Mustaqbil' (Bleak future of the West). CD. In a crisp and correct Urdu, the commentator convinces that the US is on verge of destruction as its economy is in doldrums; the Pakistan Army is a continuation of Royal Indian Army of British era and the government of Pakistan is a puppet in the hands of the US government. The number of Pakistan Army soldiers killed in action in FATA is greater than those killed in wars with India in 1948, 1965 and 1971.
