most recent books are New Directions in India's Foreign Policy: Theory and Praxis, India's Nuclear Policy and The US Pivot and Indian Foreign Policy.

Jayant Prasad has served as Director General, Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses, New Delhi. He was India's Ambassador to Afghanistan, Algeria, Nepal, and the UN Conference on Disarmament, Geneva. He was Lecturer in History at St. Stephen's College, University of Delhi, before his 37-year public service career in the Indian Foreign Service.

P. S. Raghavan is a former diplomat who now chairs India's National Security Advisory Board, which advises the National Security Council on strategic and security issues. He has represented India in the USSR, Poland, the United Kingdom, Vietnam, South Africa, Czech Republic, Ireland, and Russia, where he was India's ambassador from 2014 to 2016. He was a foreign and national security policy advisor to the Indian Prime Minister (2000–04) during a period of transformation of India's relations with the United States, Russia, China, and Europe, as well as its links in Asia.

P. Stobdan is a distinguished academician, diplomat, author, and foreign policy and national security expert. He has been working for a long time on issues relating to Eurasian affairs. Ambassador Stobdan is currently the President of the Ladakh International Centre, Leh. He regularly writes op-ed pieces for national dailies in India. His recent book The Great Game in the Buddhist Himalayas: India and China's Quest for Strategic Dominance was published in October 2019.

Constantino Xavier is a fellow in foreign policy and security studies at the Centre for Social and Economic Progress in New Delhi, where he also leads the Sambandh