

Above: I was the smallest kid in the class when I was younger, but I was desperate to play on every team.

© Alex Livesey / Getty

Right: This is me in the early years at Lancashire – the hair became a bit of a trademark!

The morning after I met Daniella, I told my teammate I'd met the woman I was going to marry.