In the small town of Netivot, a group of religious schoolteachers took girl students of Ethiopian origin for a three-day trip. Along the way the schoolteachers exchanged comments making fun of the students because of their looks, etc. Some of the girls managed to take pictures of what the teachers were sending: pure racism of the most extreme kind. It is now all over the news. These are teachers in a religious Israeli school, under the new dispensation. You may be sure that they will not be dismissed.

Smotrich arrived in New York. No official wants to meet him, except for the demonstrators protesting against his visit. Nonetheless, yesterday evening he spoke to the “Bonds” that had invited him and stressed the “common values” shared by the US and Israel. No doubt, the man has a sense of humor … He also plans to speak to meeting of the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA), a right-wing organization close to the Republicans. Next week, he plans to be in Paris. These people have incredibly thick hides, like their puppet master, Netanyahu. The Curd Jürgens/Udet quote that I used at the beginning of this diary is much too weak.
