Israel, State of: absorbing Holocaust survivors, 250; demographics, 126–27, 239, 246–47, 267; establishment of, 133–34, 237, 270; first Jewish pioneers, 203, 213; founding generation of, 332–33; Jewish immigrants to, xiii, 258; polarized society of, 205; power structure in, 133–34; world public opinion of, 122, 128
Israel Defense Forces (IDF). See IDF
Israeli-Palestinian conflict: Arab states' positions on, 196, 215–19; asymmetrical nature of, 202; beginnings of, 213; bilateral negotiation attempts, 214–16; Biltmore Conference, 210; connections to Iranian nuclearization, 105; decision-making in, 30–31; failed attempts at resolving, 209, 214–15, 249; Gaza-Jericho Agreement (1994), 216–17; Iron Wall vision, xv; Israeli concessions during, 211, 213; Israel's red lines in, 207–9; Jerusalem as core issue of, 207–9, 219, 221, 235; and the Jordanian peace process, 188; long-term coexistence strategy, 209–12; in a new Middle East model, 232–33, 234; Oslo Accords, xiv, 5, 157, 174–77, 181, 182, 215; Palestinian obstinacy during, 210, 213; parallel arrangement to address, 216–19; parallels to global terrorist conflict, 203; perpetuation of, 215–19, 268–70; prior to establishment of State of Israel, 29–31; Rabin's position on, 175–77; refugee problem as core issue of, 207–9, 219, 221, 235, 271; religious aspect of, 202; roadmap to resolution, 219, 227–29; role of Arab states in resolving, 209–10, 216–17, 222–26, 234; role of Egypt in resolving, 224–25, 234; role of Gulf States in resolving, 226, 234; role of intelligence in, 29–31; role of Jordan in resolving, 225–26, 234; role of Palestinians in resolving, 226, 228; role of Saudi Arabia in resolving, 223–24, 234; role of US in resolving, 209–10, 214–15, 219, 222–23, 227–29, 234; Saudi Initiative, 216–28; secrecy required in negotiations, 222, 227–28; security arrangements as core issue of, 219, 235; separation fence, 207, 211, 323; territory as core issue of, 208–9, 210, 219, 220, 235, 268–69; two-state solution, xiii, 206, 212; types of leaders needed to resolve, 211, 221; unilateral option, 210, 211, 212; unique variables of, 210, 221. See also refugees (Palestinian)
Israel's Silent Defender (Gilboa and Lapid), 356n3
Ivri, David, 312
Jabotinsky, Ze'ev, xv
Jakarta (Indonesia), 192–93
Jefferson, Thomas, 148
Jerusalem, 207–9, 218, 219, 221, 226, 235 jihad concept, xvi, xvii, 70, 124. See also fundamentalist Islamic terrorism
Johnson, Joseph E., 262–63
Jordan: addressed by Forum 2000 team, 12; armistice agreement with Israel, 127, 129; "Black September" (1970), 185; civil society in, 65; establishment of, 225; during the First Gulf War, xv, 188, 316–17, 354; Hamas presence in, 182, 186; in Israeli circles of conflict, 17; and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, 188–89, 217, 225–26, 228, 249; post–Sinai Campaign operations from, 256; relations with Britain, 225; relations with Egypt, 181, 188; relations with Israel, 22, 225, 304, 315–17; relations with Saudi Arabia, 181, 188, 225; relations with US, 181, 185, 188, 225; revolutionary processes in, 167; strategic goals of, 184–85, 225; succession issues, 12; during the War of Independence, 129; during the Yom Kippur War, 295. See also Hussein (king of Jordan); Jordanian-Israeli peace agreement
Jordanian-Israeli peace agreement: bilateral approach to, 214–15; challenges and obstacles to, 181–82, 186–89; differences in strategies during, 181–82, 185; finalizing of, 183–84; Halevy's role in, 180, 182–84; London Agreement, 179–80, 353; negotiation process, 179–83, 185–89; Oslo Accords' impact on, 181, 188–89; Rabin-King Hussein meetings, 176, 179, 180, 181, 184, 189; Rabin's work toward, 175–77; reasons for success, 184; role of intelligence in, 31, 184; Shamir-King Hussein meetings, 180, 353–54; signing of, xiv, 184, 187
journalists. See media