Peres, Shimon, 142; appointed acting director, 170–71; and Jordanian peace negotiations, 179–80, 182–84, 189, 353; and the Oslo Accords, 175
Peretz, Amir, 320
Persian Gulf states: in Israeli circles of conflict, 17; relations with Mossad, 195–97; revolutionary processes in, 167; role in resolving Israe- li-Palestinian conflict, 217, 226, 228; US intelligence cooperation regarding, 22, 42
pikuach nefesh principle, 315
"Plan D" (War of Independence), 241, 243–44
PLO (Palestine Liberation Organization). See Palestine Liberation Organization
PNC (Palestinian National Council), xiii, 226
police (Israeli), 26, 76–77, 258
Pollard, Jonathan, 41
preemptive strike strategy, 77, 79–81
press. See media
prevention strategies: for global terrorist threats, 78–81; in Israel's security doctrine, 308–9; nonconventional weapons focus of, 3, 308–9; three-layer defense system adding to, 131
Primakov, Yevgeny, 116–17
prime minister (Israel), office of: approving targeted killings, 81; directors of the Mossad appointed by, 171; intelligence adviser to, 141; in intelligence community hierarchies, 31, 133, 171; relations with directors of the Mossad, 353 Progressive, Inc., United States v. (467 F. Supp. 990 [W.D. Wis. 1979]), 155 psychological warfare: conducted through the internet, 161–62; of cyberattacks, 131–32; David Kimche's work in, 340; during the Second Lebanon War, 320, 325
Putin, Vladimir, 116, 117, 118, 233–34, 328

Qaboos bin Said (sultan of Oman), 195–96
Qajar dynasty (Iran), 90
Qasim, Abd al-Karim, 302–3
Qatar, 108, 226
Qawukji, Fawzi al-, 240
quantum communication, 57, 61

Rabin, Leah, 170, 171, 174, 190, 192
Rabin, Yitzhak: assassination of, viii, xiv, 168–70, 171–72; character of, 172–74, 198; as defense minister, 171, 351; on deterrence, 197; elected prime minister, xiv, 140, 171; on intelligence agencies' responsibilities, 145; legacy of, 168, 172–74, 177–79, 198; and Palestinian peace negotiations, 174–77, 216–17; participating in special operations exercises, 197–98; peace negotiation strategy of, 181, 182; on proposed international counterterrorism, 84; relationship with King Hussein, 179–84, 187, 189; relationship with Shavit, 171, 175; role in Jordanian peace process, 175–79, 184, 187–89; on secret diplomacy, 190–97; during Shavit's appointment ceremony, xi–xii; and Syrian peace negotiations, 176; visit to China, 172, 190–91; visit to Indonesia, 190–95; visit to Oman, 195–97; work habits of, 169; world's response to death of, 174; and the Zamir committee, 140–42
radical Islam. See Islamic fundamentalism
Rafidain, Ibn al-, 87
Rafsanjani, Akbar, 100
Ramle (Israel), 242
Raphael, Sylvia, 332, 341–45
Raqqa (Syria), 69–70
Rasha forum, xi, xii, 1–2, 276, 278
Raviv, Yehoshua, 290