Marx, 591
Mears, Sir Grimwood, 101
Meerut, 71, 189, 199
—— Case, 364
Mehta, Jivraj, 246
Menon, Mr. V. K. Krishna, 583
Minto, Lord, 465
Minto-Morley Scheme, 27
Monghyr, 485, 488
Montagu, Edwin, 21, 33
Montagu-Chelmsford Report, 33, 36, 41, 44, 375
Montana, 148
Montreux, 150
Moonje, Dr., 391
Moplah, 87
Morley, John, 500
Moscow, 154, 164, 268
Moslem League, 31, 46, 47, 67, 605, 606
Muir Central College, 3
Mukerji, Dhan Gopal, 154
Munich, 599, 605
Mussolini, 341, 601
Mussoorie, 50, 51, 57, 216, 231, 233
Muzaffarpur, 484, 487, 488
Mysore, 272, 273, 502

Nabha, 109-114, 116, 125, 134
—— Gaol, 115
Nagpur, 60, 67, 69, 108, 197, 199
Naidu, Sarojini, 35, 67, 212, 229
—— Mrs. Sarojini, 274, 292, 532, 594
Naini, 227, 229, 230, 234, 235, 240, 277, 305, 320, 553
—— Gaol, 92, 120, 216, 217, 226, 228, 238, 239, 243-245, 279, 322-324, 336, 349, 356, 398, 565, 566, 568, 595
Naoroji, Dadabhai, 426
Nath, Raja Narendra, 169
Nehru, Bansi Dhar, 2
—— Ganga Dhar, 2
—— Mrs., 7, 16, 247, 324, 333-335, 345, 398, 399, 402, 450, 481, 492, 565
—— Indira, 271, 345, 371, 483, 561, 562
Nehru, Jawaharlal, early family history, 1-5: home life in childhood, 6-11; "Anand Bhawan", 12; "prayashchit", "purdah", 13; English studies and Theosophy, 14, 15; family sail for England, 16; Harrow and Trinity College, Cambridge, 18-20; "The Magpie and Stump", 21; Inner Temple, 24; an adventure in Norway, called to the Bar, return to India, 26; join the High Court, 28; relations of English with Indians, 29; Mrs. Besant and English politics, 32; politics, a thorny subject, 34; losing interest in law, 35; married, 37; an adventure in the Himalayas, 37, 38; the Rowlatt Bills, 40; Gandhiji and Satyagraha Sabha, 41; visit Amritsar, 43; non-violence non-co-operation movement, 45-47; shortcomings of "nationalist" newspapers, 48; kisan (peasant) movement, 49; their misery, 52; Ramachandra's agitation, 53; vices of the zamindari system, 54; visit the villages, 56; growing agrarian movement, 57-59; a telegram from Rae Bareli, 60; the "charkha" seditious, 61; trouble in Fyzabad, 61, 62; Swaraj, 63; Congress politics, 65-70; nervousness of British officials, fears of a rising, 70, 71; nationalism in 1921, 75; absorbed in Swaraj, 76; arrested, 79; Prince of Wales's visit, 80; mass arrests, civil resistance suspended, 81; Gandhiji arrested, 81; Gandhiji's policy, 85, 86; communal friction, 87; am released, 88; boycott of foreign cloth, 89; sentenced again, 89; imprisonment and prison life, 90-97; release, 98; Allahabad Municipality, 100; Sir Grimwood Mears, 101; social relations, 101, 102; criticism of native Ministers, 102, 103; money troubles, 106; salaried posts, 107; Congress troubles, Swarajists and No-changers, Gurdwara movement, 108, 109; Jaito, Nabha gaol and Nabha procedure, 110-112; Indian State administration, 113; release and illness, 114, 115; Secretary of the All-India Congress, 117; religious feuds, communal question, 118-120; Hindustani Seva Dal, 121; bathing in the Ganges, 121-123; trip to Juhu, 124; rift in Congress, Gandhiji and Swarajists, the "spinning franchise", 124-128; Hindu-Muslim tension, renegade Congressmen, 132-136; reform or revolution, 137; job-hunting, 138; Nationalist Muslim Party, Unity Conferences, 138; Ram Lila celebration, 141; municipal work, why local bodies are inefficient, 142-146; resign my chairmanship, 147; quiet days in Switzerland, 148-151; Indian political exiles, 152-154; visit England, 156; a new Nationalist Party, 157-159; canker of communalism, 159, 160; Congress of Oppressed Nationalities in Brussels, 161, 162; return home to politics again, 165, 166; a batch of resolutions, 167; Congress Secretaryship, 168; Republican Conference, 168; Trade Union movement, 170; peasants' agitation, 171; Simon Commission, Nehru Committee, 171, 172; difficulties at All-Parties Conference, 172, 173; incident in Lahore, 174; waning of terrorism, 175; Bhagat Singh, 177; Simon Commission