- Received the Women Excellence Award, 2009 (from the Aaj Tak news channel)

International

- Received the Asia Region Award for work in the field of drug abuse prevention from the International Organization of Good Templars (IOGT), a Norway-based organization (1991)
- Bagged the Ramon Magsaysay Award for Government Service, 1994, from the Ramon Magsaysay Foundation, Philippines. (This was the first such award given to a police officer in Asia, and perhaps the first time that a police officer in the world won a 'peace' award.)
- Received Joseph Beuys Foundation Award (Switzerland) for holistic and innovative management (1997)
- Conferred the Pride of India Award by the American Federation of Muslims from India (AFMI) in the US and Canada for commitment towards human welfare, women's rights and for outstanding services and for upholding secular values (October 1999)
- Bagged the Morrison Tom =Gitchoff Award (given by the Western Society of Criminology, USA) for actions that have significantly improved the quality of justice in India (2001)
- Won the Woman of the Year Award, 2002 (given by the Blue Drop Group Management, Cultural and Artistic Association, Italy)
- Received the Chinmoy Award (2003) for welfare policing (USA)
- Bagged the Power of the Dedicated Professional Award (2003) from the University of South Florida (USF) and the Federation of Indian Americans (FIA)
- Honoured with a UN Medal (2004)
- Received the Annemaire-Maddison Prize, 2008 (Germany)
- Received the Parvasi Award, 2008 (Canada)

Important invitations

- Represented India in American, European and Asian international forums on the subjects of drug abuse, drug trafficking prevention, prison reforms and human rights
- Addressed the International Police Chiefs' Conference (1992), USA
- Attended the National Prayer Breakfast with the president of the USA in 1995
- Visited and addressed British prisons on the invitation of the British Foreign Office (1995)