- Attended the United Nations World Social Summit in Denmark 1995
- Attended the United Nations Women's Conference in Beijing (1995)
- Attended the United Nations Conference on Drug Abuse in New York (1998)
- Invited by the Mauritius Government to train law enforcement agencies in the prevention of domestic violence (1998)
- Attended the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC) Workshop on Anti-narcotics, Planning and Development in Islamabad, Pakistan (1998)
- Addressed the Prison Governors' Association Annual Conference in Buxton, UK (March 2000)
- Addressed the Fourth Session of the Senior Criminal Justice Executive Program at Bangkok, 2000, organized by the Department of Justice, Government of the USA
- Panelist along with Nobel Laureate Professor Amartya Sen on the subject of 'welfare policing', Oslo, Norway (2002)
- Attended Parvasi Awards Night, 13 April 2008 (Canada)
- Parvasi Media Group, 14 November 2008 (Canada)
- Chief guest at Delhi Public School (DPS), Sharjah (2008)
- Participated in the Ninth Informal ASEM (Asia–Europe Meeting) Seminar on Human Rights, 2009, Strasbourg (France)
- Guest speaker at Harvard, Emory, Hartford, Maryland, Columbia, Berkley, New York, Indiana, Florida, Oxford and Cambridge Universities

Books and columns

- Authored a book called It's Always Possible (Sterling, New Delhi, 1998) on the transformation of one of the largest prisons (Tihar Jail) in the world. It is accompanied by a CD ROM with the same title produced by India Vision Foundation
- Another biography entitled The Kindly Baton authored by a psychologist and a research scholar, Meenakshi Saxena, was published by Books India International, New Delhi, in 2000
- What Went Wrong, a compilation of real-life stories, UBS Publishers Distributors, New Delhi, 2001 (which was also a serial on Doordarshan, India's national television, and is still continuing on All India Radio)