- Co-authored a book entitled Government@net on e-governance (Sage, New Delhi)
- Regular columnist in national dailies: Hindustan Times (Chandigarh edition), Punjab Kesri, Navbharat Times and Hind Samachar
- As I See It, a series of books based on her columns (Sterling, New Delhi).

Special interests

Community work

- Founded two organizations, both of which are on the UN Observer Status:

(a) Navjyoti India Foundation, registered in 1987 (for more information, see www.navjyoti.org.in)
(b) India Vision Foundation, registered in 1994 (for more information, see www.indiavisionfoundation.org)

Navjyoti provides:

Cost-free, residential, therapeutic, community-based treatment and interventions for alcohol and drug dependents (over 16,000 drug dependents treated by now). Navjyoti has

- set up crèches, primary and gali (street) schools for children in slums, rural areas and prisons
- established vocational and literacy centres for women and adolescents
- organized crèche training programmes for women in Tihar Jail

Navjyoti was awarded the UN-based Serge Sotiroff Memorial Award 1999 for its pioneering work in the field of drug abuse prevention and treatment. This award was received on 26 June 1999, the International Day against Drug Abuse

Navjyoti has also received the Delhi Government-sponsored State Award for its work in the field of education and rehabilitation of destitute children

India Vision Foundation provides:

- Schooling for prisoners' children
- Vocational training for women in prison
- Remedial schools for children
- Rural development projects for village communities