Upon hearing counsel the Court made the following ORDER:

Urgent need to usher in police reforms has been receiving attention of all concerned Governments, authorities and bodies for about three decades. Various Commissions and Committees were set up which gave their reports. As far back as in November 1977, the Government of India had appointed [the] National Police Commission which gave reports in number of volumes after examining the matter from various angles for nearly four years. A petition filed in this Court ultimately resulted in issue of directions by judgement and order dated 22 September 2006, in Prakash Singh & Ors. vs.
