tournaments in the USA where Anu is now a practising attorney. On the other hand, Kiran's tennis partner and younger sister Reeta has made her mark in the field of special education by authoring several books. She is a greatly sought-after speaker in the field of mental disabilities. It seems that tennis in the family has made champions out of the girls: Assets all the way …