

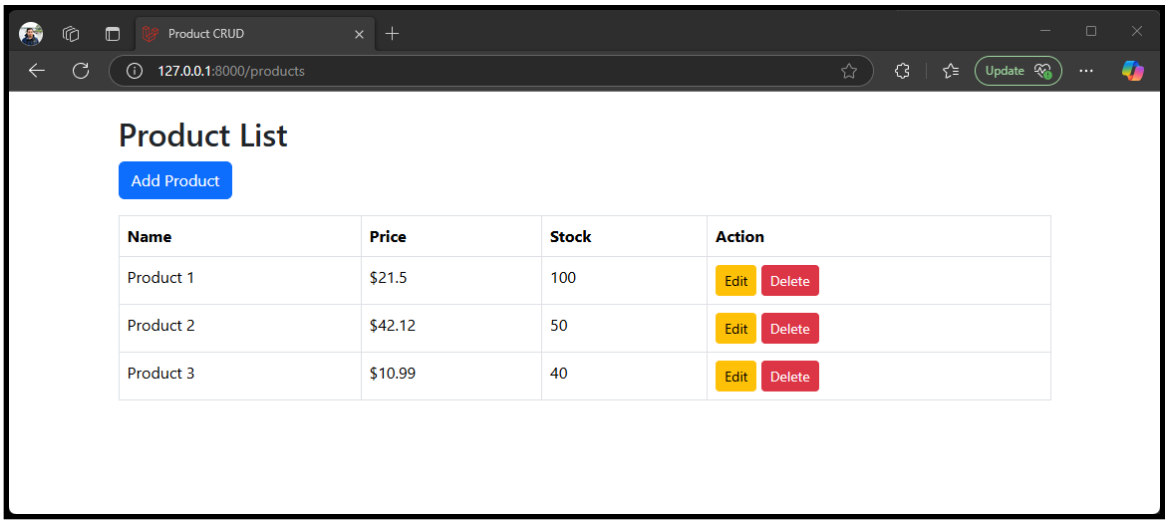

Figure 12.10: Product list with more data.

To edit a product, click the `Edit` button next to the product. This will take you to the edit form. Make your changes and click `Update`. You should see a success message and the updated product in the list.

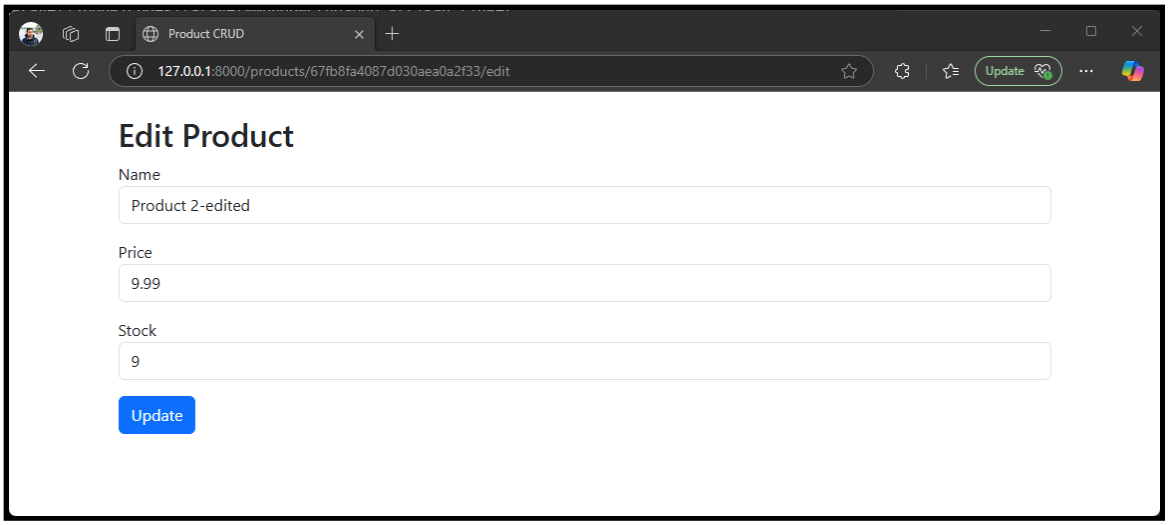

Figure 12.11: Edit product.

It shows the product details in the form. You can change the name, price, and stock. Click `Update` to save the changes. You should see a success message and the updated product in the list.