

The dawn of the nuclear age. Hiroshima was destroyed by a uranium bomb (nicknamed ‘Little Boy’ on 6 August 1945. It is estimated that by 1950, some 200,000 people died from the bomb’s effects, including radiation. (CC Daveahl)