

On 27 October 1962 Captain Vasili Arkhipov is reported to have dissuaded the commander of the Soviet submarine B-59, Captain Savitsky, from firing his nucleararmed torpedo at an American warship. He is frequently described as ‘The Man Who Saved the World’ from nuclear war. (CC A-SA 4.0I)