107. These intercepts included Soviet discussion on the overthrow of the emir of Bokhara, and their hesitation about arming the Afghans among other things. TNA/FO371/6746/N4365, Telegram from Dobbs to the Indian Chief of General Staff, 3 March 1921.

108. Popplewell, op. cit., p. 310.

109. TNA/FO371/6746/N4581, Telegram from Reading to Montagu, 12 April 1921.

110. TNA/F0371/6746/N6234, Telegram from Dobbs to Reading, 14 April 1921.

111. Gregorian, op. cit., p. 232.

112. Becker, op. cit., p. 297.

113. Particularly with the provision of munitions and telegraph facilities, which the Soviet government had promised and which his government would therefore otherwise lose. TNA/FO371/6746/N4887, Telegram from Reading to Montagu, 20 April 1921.

114. TNA/FO371/6746/N6235, Telegram from Reading to Dobbs, 22 April 1921.

115. TNA/FO317/6747/N5504, Telegram from Montagu to Reading, 29 April 1921. [Emphasis mine].

116. TNA/FO371/6746/N4887, Telegram from Reading to Montagu, 20 April 1921.

117. TNA/FO371/6747/N5173, Telegram from Reading to Montagu, 27 April 1921.

118. TNA/FO371/6747/N5504, Telegram from Reading to Montagu, 5 May 1921.

119. TNA/FO371/6747/N6933, Telegram from Montagu to Reading, 12 May 1921.