39. TNA/FO371/7802/E1172, Telegram from Loraine, 1 Feb. 1922.

40. TNA/FO371/7802/E1172, Foreign Office telegram to Loraine, 4 Feb. 1922.

41. TNA/FO371/7805/E5237, Telegram from Curzon to Loraine, 24 May 1922.

42. TNA/FO1011/127, Letter from Loraine to Gregory, 30 Nov. 1923.

43. Although in its typical paranoid fashion the committee also warned that Persia still needed to be watched carefully for Bolshevik intrigue. Fisher, 'Interdepartmental Committee', p. 12.

44. TNA/FO371/7802/E362, Telegram from His Majesty's Consul in Dazap to the Viceroy, 6 Nov. 1921.

45. TNA/FO371/7802/E449, Memorandum by Lieutenant-Colonel Saunders, 8 Nov. 1921.

46. TNA/FO371/7802/E449, Telegram from Bridgeman, 18 Nov. 1921. Emphasis added.

47. TNA/FO371/7803/E2427, Telegram from Reading, 17 Dec. 1921.

48. In 1921 treaties had been concluded between Russia and Afghanistan, Russia and Turkey, and Turkey and Afghanistan. See Kapur, op. cit., p. 103 and Spector, op. cit., pp. 99–100.

49. TNA/FO371/7803/E2517, Telegram from Lieutenant-Colonel Saunders to Loraine, 28 Dec. 1921.

50. TNA/FO371/7806/E6425, Report by Major Bray on Bolshevik and Kemalist Activity in Persia, 23 June 1922.

51. TNA/FO371/7803/E2517, Telegram from Loraine, 30 Dec. 1921.

52. Curzon could not help making a dig in his reply 'that this union was inevitable when the decision had been taken to abandon the Caucasus. He