77. Anti-Semitism is clear in some of the reports on Montagu's speech: 'Under interruption, Montagu got excited when making his speech and became more racial and more Yiddish in screaming tone and gesture, and a strong anti-Jewish sentiment was shown by shouts and excitement among normally placid Tories...' Gilbert, op. cit., Letter from Sir William Sutherland to Lloyd George, 9 July 1920, pp. 1140–1; 'Mr Montagu, patriotic and sincere English Liberal as he is, is also a Jew, and in excitement has the mental idiom of the East', the Times , 9 July 1920.
