9. The GDR Solidarity Committee gave 40 million DDM to African countries in the first half of 1978 and flew many guerrilla fighters wounded in Namibia and Rhodesia for treatment in East German hospitals. Honecker’s fingerprints were also detected in Nicaragua where he sent Stasi experts to set up an MfS-style secret service along with a planeload of Kalashnikovs, anti-tank guns and military trucks to fight the ‘Contras’. Later, the GDR also financed the ‘Karl Marx Hospital’ in Managua pumping 4 million DDM into the project annually.
