Evil Partnerships

1. In 1990, The West Berlin authorities considered a missing MfS file particularly important because it comprehensively dealt with the issue. This file was said to contain hand-written notes by Honecker which proved he knew about the preparations for the attack and ordered the Stasi not to do anything to prevent it. FBIS-EEU-90-170

4. Interestingly, the Berliner Morgenpost (18 October 1990), cited MfS files alleging Honecker and Mielke had, in fact, attempted to prevent the bombing. The files were said to show ‘that the MfS leadership exerted political pressure on the Libyan Embassy in East Berlin to prevent the terrorist attack.’ After the bombing, the paper continued, pressure was increased to prevent such attacks, prepared from East Berlin territory, in the future.
