4 An option on a Facebook Page that allows users to follow information being posted on the Page. It is often associated with the popularity of a particular Facebook Page.
5 'unknown individuals' – this term is often used by state officials related to such abductions but civil society and human rights activists claim that these 'unknown individuals' are not that 'unknown' since they are part of the intelligence community.
6 Cambridge Analytica, a 'data analytics firm that worked with Donald Trump's election team and the winning Brexit campaign harvested millions of Facebook profiles of US voters, in one of the tech giant's biggest ever data breaches, and used them to build a powerful software program to predict and influence choices at the ballot box' (Cadwalladr and Graham-Harrison 2018).
7 In Assam ethnic conflict broke out in which '70 people died and around 4,85,000, people' were 'displaced'; in a communal dispute leading to the Muzzafarnagar riots in 2013 '43 people were killed, 93 injured and 50,000 were relocated'. (For more information see Bute 2014.)
8 It is important to note that according to Pew Research Center's survey of 1,201 Pakistanis in 2013, only 3 per cent used their cell phones to access social media sites (Pew Research Centre 2014, p. 6). This number will have increased with the push towards 3G and 4G networks provided by mobile companies in Pakistan.
