migration file for the jobs table by running:

---

php artisan queue:table

This command creates a migration file in database/migrations for the jobs table.

Run Migration

Then apply the migration to update your database with the required table:

---

php artisan migrate

This command will create the jobs table in your database where Laravel will record each queued job.

Dispatching Job to Queue

Create Sample Job