using Linux cron jobs to run periodic security audits.

All these detailed steps get us the secured local storage for media files in our “myapp.” Furthermore, you implemented practical file upload and retrieval operations with the help of Laravel controllers and routes, ensuring that media files are uploaded securely and streamed to authenticated users.