work. It ensures that your local codebase is up to date with any changes made by your colleagues, reducing merge conflicts.

---

git pull origin master

This whole structured Git setup reinforces the comprehensive environment we're steadily establishing for your Laravel development, and also for future enhancements and team contributions.