And finally, you need to visit your application and you should see ready-to-use login, registration, and password reset pages. All these pages ensure that credentials are processed securely and that sessions are managed correctly.