

This theory was soon put to the test in 1912-13 when survey parties with moderate-sized escort parties were pushed up the Siang and Dibang river valleys far into the Abor and Mishmi Hills. These were areas that no