House, 2010), 698–700. A discussion of obstruction of rescue should also include the problem of the wartime anti-Zionist campaign of the British government and its propaganda initiative in the United States, which essentially endeavored to achieve the same result.

42. Harkabi, Palestine Covenant, 123.

43. For example, the late Faisal Husseini (1940–2001), whom the media fondly designated a "Palestinian moderate," declared on 24 June 2001 in an interview in the Egyptian (Nasserite) newspaper Al Arabi, that the Oslo Agreements constituted a "Trojan horse," whose essence was deception. He stated clearly that the PLO had entered an agreement for the purpose of gaining a foothold in the Land of Israel from which it could wage a sustained guerilla war that eventually would destroy the Jewish state and replace it with an Arab Palestine, http://memri.org/bin/articles.cgi?Page=archives&Area=sd&ID=SP23601.
