11. The casualties of the Nautilus are commemorated on a plaque in the American Bar of the East India Club in London.
12. The best account of the Pacific Squadron is by Robert Erwin Johnson, Thence Round Cape Horn: The Story of United States Naval Forces on Pacific Station, 1818–1923 (Annapolis, MD: United States Naval Institute, 1963). For the East India and Asiatic Squadron, see Robert Erwin Johnson, Far China Station: The U.S. Navy in Asian Waters, 1800–1898 (Annapolis, MD: Naval Institute Press, 1979). The Asiatic Squadron became the Asiatic Fleet in 1902. In 1907, it and the Pacific Squadron were combined into the Pacific Fleet. See also Curtis T. Henson, Jr., Commissioners and Commodores: The East India Squadron and American Diplomacy in China (University: University of Alabama Press, 1982).
