12. There are many sources that attempt to demystify the highly secret command and control procedures in the United States and other countries. A brief primer from the Union of Concerned Scientists can be found in "Whose Finger Is on the Button?," https://www.ucsusa.org/sites/default/files/attach/2017/11/Launch-Authority.pdf; an even briefer but useful blog post is Lt. Col. Gary Jacobsen," Command and Control of Nuclear Forces," US Naval Institute, March 15, 2019, https://blog.usni.org/posts/2019/03/15/command-and-control-of-nuclear-forces. An older treatment is Daniel Ford, The Button (New York: Simon and Schuster, 1985).
